Srilanka - Free of Bribery and Corruption.

Srilanka, a country so innocent, with people so kind and just.

The waves rolling with ecstasy
and the trees dancing to the wind's music.

Should people do wrong? Bribery?

A sin that is greatly shamed upon.

When it happens,
corruption starts;

Blooming slowly and quietly
till it becomes a matter taken not lightly.

Greed accede and dignity denied.

Money could do much,

But a loser in bringing happiness.

Life in Srilanka is void of this,
the peaceful calm and nature's bliss
locking away the man's devil;
and showing guilt for cowardly evil

Oh! Srilanka. The greatest mother of all, showering blessings and peace on us.

There is no chance for disgrace
when she has left no gap unfilled with love, care and evil untraced.

Corruption stills and bribery stands back
As the brilliance of unity and loyalty
Blinds them all...

Salabka - Force of Binding and Responsibility

Salabka is a concept of responsibility with people to bind and hold the more - strong with a strong and the more - strong to the more

Should people do more? Should
A sin that is a good thing?

Should people do more? Should
A sin that is a good thing?

Should people do more? Should
A sin that is a good thing?

Should people do more? Should
A sin that is a good thing?

Should people do more? Should
A sin that is a good thing?

Should people do more? Should
A sin that is a good thing?
